NEW YORK, NY (November 9, 2026) — The Store at MAD, the retail arm of the Museum of Arts and Design (MAD), presents RE:FINE Holiday 2026, an in-store shopping event that showcases 23 visionary international artists redefining contemporary fine jewelry. Launching during NYC Jewelry Week, RE:FINE invites members of the press and public to a festive cocktail reception at the Museum with artists and collectors on Wednesday, November 18, from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. ET.

“RE:FINE is a playground for collectors and patrons to immerse themselves in the joy of fine jewelry,” said Sathya Balakumar, Deputy Director of Retail Operations for The Store at MAD. “Our artists have redefined the idea of the modern heirloom, crafting wearable works of art that are sculptural, rich, and versatile. This season, we’re thrilled to introduce new international voices alongside returning favorites, inviting our community to come in and play with jewelry from around the world.”

Featured artists making their RE:FINE debuts include Atelier S, Métier by Tomfoolery, and Sarah Martinez. Annie Sterenberg, the artist behind Atelier S, produces solid, striking pieces with bold lines and discreet messages. Métier's designer Laura Kay works in 9K gold to create signature silhouettes with meticulous inlay work and poetic palettes. Sarah Martinez created her namesake collection as an homage to the Americas. Inspired by her European and Mexican heritage, she explores bold colors and ancestral shapes in her work, using US-sourced gemstones and modern settings.

Returning artists include: Allison Alane, Bleecker & Prince, Christine Fail, Elizabeth Garvin, Hannah Allene, Joan Hornig, Ladha, Lika Behar, Mara Labell, Margoni, Mateo New York, Maura Green, Page Sargisson, Petra Class, Preeti Sandhu, Ritique, Sethi Couture, Shinkai, Sunlit Jewelry, and Wwake.

ABOUT THE STORE AT MAD
The Store at MAD is an original voice and premier shopping destination in New York City, offering a curated presentation of well-executed, artist-made contemporary jewelry and objects. We think of ourselves as a bridge between our customers, our artists, their work, and the Museum. At the core of our presentation are unique products that celebrate excellence in craftsmanship, innovation in the use of materials, and the process of design—all parts of the Museum of Arts and Design's mission.

ABOUT THE MUSEUM OF ARTS AND DESIGN
The Museum of Arts and Design (MAD) champions contemporary makers across creative fields and presents the work of artists, designers, and artisans who apply the highest level of ingenuity and skill. Since the Museum's founding in 1956 by philanthropist and visionary Aileen Osborn Webb, MAD has celebrated all facets of making and the creative processes by which materials are transformed, from traditional techniques to cutting-edge technologies. Today, the Museum's curatorial program builds upon a rich history of exhibitions that emphasize a cross-disciplinary approach to art and design and reveals the workmanship behind the objects and environments that shape our everyday lives. MAD provides an international platform for practitioners who are influencing the direction of cultural production and driving twenty-first century innovation and fosters a participatory setting for visitors to have direct encounters with skilled making and compelling works of art and design.
